

Blue Renaissance

Are you looking to make new friends? Do you want to get out more?

Blue Renaissance is the group for you!

Blue Renaissance is a social skill building group for young adults (ages 18 and older) on the Autism Spectrum which meets once a month at various locations chosen by the members of the group. Meetings are typically held on Monday evenings from 6:00-8:00pm. MHA staff are present during the outings but only to facilitate socialization. Participants must be independent and not require supervision. Costs for all activities are covered and there is no registration fee.
